HAMLET

By William Shakespeare | Directed by George Mount

After receiving news of his father's death, a young man comes home to a much changed world. Doubt, uncertainty, and grief dog him at every turn. Struggling to make sense of the new order, Hamlet faces a crossroad. He can consent to or rage against the injustice around him. Rich with soaring language, Shakespeare's masterpiece opens up with fresh insights with each new viewing.

LOVE'S LABOUR'S LOST

By William Shakespeare | Directed by Mary Machala

The idealistic resolve of four young men is tested by four young ladies who show up at their doorstep. The King and his friends vow to abstain from women's company for three years. They plan to devote their time to academics. The Princess of France and her ladies arrive for a visit just as the vows leave the men's lips. It's will against desire and heart against head in this delightful summer romance.
